

Valeria D'Amico

Consultant

B.Sc. in Business Administration specialising in tourism and mobility (FHZ)

Valeria D'Amico advises public administrations, institutions and companies on economic policy and business management issues, for example in the form of value creation studies or process analyses and optimisations. She also oversees tourism projects – from supporting site developments and preparing tourism strategies to conducting tourism analyses and supporting private tourism organisations in the development of new business areas. She also works as a consultant for energy suppliers and infrastructure operators.

Valeria D'Amico has been with Hanser Consulting AG since 2019. Valeria D'Amico previously gained professional experience at the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs in Bern, where she worked as an IC consultant while completing her part-time studies. During this time, she was able to gain practical experience in advising and supporting customers in technical and professional matters relating to specialised unemployment insurance applications. Another focus was the development and continuous optimisation of the IT service desk.
