

René Goetz

Partner and chairman of the Board of Directors

Bachelor's degree in business administration
Post-graduate diploma in business administration

Partner and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Hanser Consulting AG

The focus of his activities is on business development and corporate restructuring and refinancing. René Goetz's core areas of expertise also include the management and control of challenging reorganisation processes in industrial, service and commercial enterprises as well as public administration units.

Thanks to his years of experience in assisting with restructuring programmes as well as purchase and sale transactions, René Goetz possesses in-depth knowledge of corporate financing, making him a expert contact partner for assessing projects from the viewpoint of investors.

René Goetz performs various Board mandates, including some as a result of investment holdings in companies.

René Goetz joined Hanser Consulting AG in 1997. Prior to that, as Head of the Procurement, Logistics and Controlling Division and from mid-1994 as Member of the Management Board, he worked in a medium-sized, multinational industrial company (OERTLI Werkzeuge AG, Höri ZH).
